Dear UC Davis Alumni and Friends,

Join a small group of travelers for a unique opportunity to experience the provincial region of Dordogne, still referred to by locals as Périgord Noir. Here, castles tell the story of a different time alongside the region's extraordinary cave paintings more than 17,000 years old. Dordogne offers centuries-old rituals, epicurean traditions, and archaeological treasures that are preserved within a breathtaking landscape of hills, rivers, limestone gorges, and forests.

Our carefully curated itinerary explores four UNESCO World Heritage Sites—the ancient pilgrimage site of Rocamadour; the archaeological treasures of L'Abri du Cap-Blanc, Rouffignac; Les Eyzies-de-Tayac-Sireuil; and the prehistoric troglodyte village of La Madeleine. Visit the renowned International Centre for Cave Art at Lascaux to view dazzling simulations of one of humankind's earliest artistic creations, known as the "Sistine Chapel of Prehistory."

Fall into the rhythms of everyday life in Sarlat-la-Canéda, one of Europe's most-intact medieval villages. Spend seven nights at the PLAZA MADELEINE HÔTEL, a restored 19th-century townhouse. In addition to the included meals in the hotel, dine on regional specialties during traditional three-course dinners in authentic French bistros.

This program through Dordogne offers a quintessential sojourn through the timeless southwest region of France at an excellent value—and you unpack only once! Book now while space and early booking savings are still available.

A Taste of France

Southwestern France is renowned for its exquisite wines and fromage (cheese) varieties, thanks to the region's fertile soil and favorable climate. When it comes to wine, Dordogne offers exceptional varieties—one of the most esteemed being Bergerac, a delicate red wine known for its deep ruby color and balanced flavors of black fruits, spices, and subtle oak nuances, giving the wine great potential for aging. Another prized Dordogne wine is Monbazillac, a sweet white wine with notes of apricot, peach, and honeycomb. Dordogne is also home to delectable cheeses—including Rocamadour, a goat cheese with a creamy texture and a slightly nutty flavor which pairs wonderfully with the region's red wines. Another noteworthy cheese is Bleu des Causses, a blue cheese with a creamy, crumbly texture and a tangy, slightly spicy taste, often enjoyed with sweet white wines. The soft and creamy Chaumes pairs well with red wines, especially those from St. Emilion—and the full and smoky Trappe d'Echourgnac is best matched with fruity red wines. The treasures of Dordogne's wine and cheese culture are sure to tantalize your taste buds and leave a lasting impression.

STEP INTO PREHISTORIC TIMES

Lascaux Cave Art

You will find the greatest concentration of prehistoric art sites anywhere in the world in the enchanting département of the region of Dordogne. Limestone caves and rocky overhangs provided Ice Age humans with not only shelter, but also a vast canvas for extraordinary paintings. In Lascaux and Rouffignac—the two most well-known caves and both UNESCO World Heritage Sites—extinct aurochs, wild stallion, and antelopes that were painted over 17,000 years ago still prance, preen, and gallop before your eyes. The original Lascaux cave has been closed to the public since 1963 for preservation purposes; however, the incredible replica in the International Centre for Cave Art at Lascaux allows you to experience these iconic cave paintings interactively, providing a realistic, stimulating representation of the exuberant colors that have faded in the original cave.

Rouffignac offers up-close views of over 250 deft prehistoric drawings and paintings that cover a gallery of cavernous walls and ceilings, including the famous friezes of two bison ready to engage each other in battle and 10 mammoths in procession—one of the largest cave paintings ever discovered.

Near the village of Les Eyzies, visit the original Cro-Magnon rock shelter and UNESCO World Heritage Site of L'Abri de Cap-Blanc, showcasing the rare, life-size frieze of horses and bison sculpted in limestone. An expert-guided tour of the National Museum of Prehistory in Les Eyzies helps put this vast network of prehistoric art into context. La Madeleine also features magnificent caves inhabited by families over many millennia.

12th-century statue of the Black Virgin and Child, a walnut carving more than 1,000 years old. Embedded in the cliff above the doorway to the Chapelle de Notre Dame is a sword said to be that of the heroic knight Roland.
